ARE YOU A MOTIVATED SALES PERSON
LOOKING TO INVEST?

We are currently experiencing an exceptional rate of business growth and are exploring the possibility of sharing this opportunity with the right individuals. Moderustic Inc. has for the past 14 years been a professional manufacturer of FireGlass, custom burners, unique fire features and a global player in custom (Metal Fabrication and multi-elemental, Fire, Water, LED) projects. We firmly believe that in the right hands our innovative products may present immense opportunity.

This is not a cookie cutter franchise package, nor a percentage sale of our company. Rather this is a product(s) specific investment that begins with a conversation and arrives at a mutually beneficial partnership.

We are receptive to new ideas and innovative ways to market our products. If you are a proven sales-talent who's pursuing investment opportunities, in a market whose potential is yet to be measured, please contact us today.

Sincerely,
President.

ARE YOU A MOTIVATED ENTREPRENEUR, MOVER, SHAKER, INVESTORS OR A SALES PERSON, LOOKING TO INVEST?

Ever seen that beautiful crushed glass in a fireplace? Ever wondered where this started (InventED it)? Do you know that Patents exist over the manner of its creation? And guess what...Moderustic Inc holds them. And its time we took credit, where credit is do!

Starting mid 2013, we will be launching hundreds (possibly up 300-500) of initial lawsuits against various alleged infringes. This marks the beginning of a whole new era for our company. One in where we expect great prosperity and opportunity as we began multiple waves of lawsuits against thousands (~7000) of alleged infringes across the country.

As it is, we are experiencing exceptional growth with many of our product lines, often shipping globally and dealing with national, high profile commercial projects. Known as a go-to destination for one of kind features and projects that are often believed not do-able; our reputation as custom metal fabricators with unparalleled pyrotechnics' grows daily.

With all this potential we are exploring the possibility of sharing this opportunity with the right individuals.

We firmly believe that in the right hands our innovative products may present immense opportunity. This is not a cookie cutter franchise package, nor a percentage sale of our company. Rather this is a product(s) specific investment that begins with a conversation and arrives at a mutually beneficial partnership.

Meaning the ideal candidate is a seasoned professional in his/her field of business and is looking to not only invest but help market and grow all of our product lines and various business aspects; from marketing, sales and operational structure. In exchange you will receive a percentage of all sales from your particular niche. So if you have the experience and financial liberty to join our company, please contact us today to set up a meeting.

Sincerely,

President Moderustic Inc
Ed Jaunzemis and the entire staff
